Re: In Re: Terrorist Attack on September 11, 2001
 MDL No. 1570
 Ashton, Burnett & Federal Ins. Co., et al. v. al Qaeda, et al.

Dear Judge Casey:

As the Court is aware, to promote efficiency and prevent the Court from having to read seventy-five pages of similar material on each motion, tomorrow the Ashton, Burnett and Federal plaintiffs are filing a consolidated brief in opposition to motions to dismiss filed by defendant, Naif bin Abdulaziz al-Saud. However, addressing the issues raised in three separate complaints and incorporating the ideas of the different law firms involved requires slightly more than the twenty-five pages per brief allowed under the Court's rules.

Plaintiffs respectfully request leave of Court to submit a thirty page consolidated brief in opposition to Naif bin Abdulaziz al-Saud's motion to dismiss. We have asked counsel for Naif bin Abdulaziz al-Saud to agree to a page extension and counsel does not oppose the request as long as plaintiffs consent to an additional five pages for his reply,

Honorable Richard C. Casey

which we do.

Respectfully submitted,
